

The Karaoke Killer

Competition.

It brings out the best and worst in people.

The best can be as simple as a gracious applause for the contest winner.

The worst?

Well, let's just say that the worst could be contestants engaging in nasty little behaviors--doing things to each other--subtle things--evil things.

Why, the greediest of us might undermine the success of others, deliberately plot someone's downfall, or even pay off a dude or two.

Yes, some folks will seek victory at any cost--they'd do anything for a trophy.

Sad, isn't it?

But, it makes for a really great murder mystery!
